LYNCHED BY HIS OWN RACE .- On Wednesday night near Disputanta, Va. a station on the Norfolk and Western Railroad, a negro was lynched by a crowd of his own race. A few weeks ago El-more Mosley, colored, was arresred and charged with the murder of Alexander Fields, colored, who was shot on the county road. Mosley's trial was set for this term of the Sussex County Court, but at the trial sufficient evidence could but at the trial sufficient evidence could not be obtained by the jury, so he was acquitted and released. This did uot satisfy the negroes of the county, as Fields was a highly respected negro, so they sought revenge. On Wednesday afternoon a crowd assembled near the place where the negroe was, and at 8 o clock he was caught and hung to the tree by an angry mob. The lynching was quietly and quickly done The negrostrongly proclaimed his innocence and tried to make a few remarks, but was lifted from the ground without being allowed to finish.
